Jesus Washes Feet

Jesus knew he was going to die soon, and before he left his friends, he wanted to show them how they were to care for each other. That evening, he wrapped a towel around his waist and filled a big bowl with water. "I am going to wash your feet," he told his friends.

"No way!" they said. "That's a job for servants to do!"

Jesus smiled. "Exactly. I did not come to earth to be a tyrant king and order everyone around. I came here to serve."

Peter frowned. "But you're our teacher and our master!"

"Yes, Peter," Jesus answered. "So if your teacher and master can serve you, then you can serve others, no matter who they are."

Jesus friends nodded. They would remember what Jesus showed them.

REMEMBER THIS

WASHING FEET

In Jesus' time, people wore sandals, so their feet got dirty. They washed their feet when they came inside.

FOOT-WASHING CROSSWORD

Use the story on the first page to help you fill in the crossword puzzle.

Jesus wanted to show his [10 ACROSS] how to care for each other. He wrapped a [1 DOWN] around his [2 ACROSS] and filled a big bowl with [5 ACROSS]. "I am going to [9 DOWN] your [4 DOWN]," he said. "That's a job for [7 DOWN]!" they said. Jesus smiled. "I did not come to [6 ACROSS] to order everyone around. I came to serve." Peter frowned. "But you're our [3 DOWN] and our master!" "Yes, Peter," Jesus answered. "So if I can serve you, then you can [8 ACROSS (2 words)], no matter who they are."

Did You Know?

When you get a pedicure, which is having your toenails cut and polished, it often includes having your feet washed and massaged, too!

TRY IT AT HOME!

Take a foot bath! Scrub your feet with a loofah. Use some good-smelling soap. Dry off and put on some nice lotion.
