

April 14, 2024, Third Sunday of Easter

Luke 24:36b-48

Use this resource at home to guide your household's daily devotions.

Pray: Light a candle and open your devotion time with a prayer.

Gracious God, you reveal yourself to us in the everyday—an encounter with a friend, a shared meal. Open our eyes to see you in everything you have created, and fill us with joy in your presence with us. In your holy name we pray. Amen.

Read: Read the key verse from Sunday's reading.

Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures. (Luke 24:45)

Reflect: Reflect on the scripture summary.

In this text, Jesus calls his apostles back to the basics, reminding them of his identity, his mission and the transformative power of his love.

Connect: Connect in conversation with others in your household.

- What was a high point of your day? What was a low point?
- Do you have a hard time or an easy time living in the moment? What do you get out of living in the past, future, or present?
- For the littles: What's awesome about this moment right now?

Bless: Close your devotion with a blessing.

May God make you present here and now. Amen.

Do: By acting on what we learn, we make God's word come alive. Do the following activity this week.

Reach out to a friend or family member that you may take for granted. Spend intentional time with them and appreciate being with them (even if by phone or video chat) in the moment.

Go Deeper: Read and reflect on the readings for each day of the week.
