CARE GROUPS

Some of you may not be connected to a small group within the Immanuel community and we want to provide you with the opportunity to join a short-term Care Group. We envision that these groups will:

- Connect with each other regularly to share highs and lows
- Share a Bible verse or story
- Talk about faith and life
- Share in praying with and for each other
- Have between 3 and 5 people in them

As we face new challenges and fears in this time of coronavirus the gifts of faith, hope, and love that we share as God's people are more vital than ever. Join in our livestreaming worship during Holy Week including:

- Maundy Thursday, April 9, 7 p.m. Maundy Thursday worship celebrates Jesus sharing his last supper with the disciples, and the institution of Holy Communion, the sacrament we continue to share in as we remember our Lord in the bread and wine, and participate in this meal of grace. Worship includes a dialogue remembering the last supper, and a special celebration of Holy Communion as we welcome our 5th graders, some for the first time, to this special meal.
- Good Friday, April 10, 7p.m. Worship featuring a recording of Immanuel's 2018 presentation of Dubois' "Seven Last Words of Christ". We come together to again proclaim that Christ has died that we might live!
- Easter Sunday, April 12 Easter at Immanuel. CHRIST IS RISEN! Join us for livestreaming worship at 9:15 and 10:45 a.m. as we celebrate our Lord's resurrection. The good news of Easter, the new life and hope we share in Christ, has special significance for us as we wait and hope for "new life" in this pandemic season. Special music adds to the joy of this holy festival.
 - 9:15 a.m. - Traditional - Livestream
 - 10:45 a.m. - Contemporary - Livestream
