Summer Sermon Series

Immanuel's values include Loving God and one another, Intentional faith development and expression, Active service in the community, Practicing transformative generosity. Our Summer Sermon Series lifts up these values.

June 24—July 15: Faith in Daily Life (Intentional faith development and expression) John's letter is encouragement for living out our faith in practical ways. John especially focuses on what it means to live out Jesus' great commandment to love one another. Love costs; it costs us humility, time, effort, grace, and compassion. Come and find encouragement for how we include those traits in our daily lives.

July 22—August 12: Fearless Love (Active service in the community) Inspiring our value of service at Immanuel is the embracing of fearless love. Service requires fearless love, love that does what is right no matter the cost, love that stands up to corrupt powers, love that resists temptations of selfishness and fear. Come hear how Ruth, God's faithful servant, lived faithfully and fearlessly as she put her life on the line to care for others.

August 19—September 2: Transformative Generosity God is generous with us, and gifts us again and again with abundant love and grace. We, who are created in God's image, find our greatest joy and most satisfying purpose when we live generously. And when we live generously, we are changed; we know more happiness and contentment, and we are a greater blessing to the world.
