Justice

Reflection by Randy Moroney

How is justice fulfilled? That is one of the questions we wrestled with during the recent confirmation retreat. We submersed into this question with a field trip to the George Floyd Memorial, Say Their Names Cemetery, and Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

The atmosphere of these sites was spiritual, peaceful, and overflowing with prayers, poetry, artwork, and memorials that reflected a somber history but hope filled future.

We focused on the theme of us all being the many diverse parts that together make up the one body that Jesus's one body was given for. We learned that we all of us possess a characteristic or experience that could be cause for differential or racial treatment by others.

This enlightened us to realize that justice is fulfilled in how we live and act to promote equality, challenge prejudice, and neutralize social bias. This is captured and summarized in Micah 6:8 stating, "And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God."
