

Did'ja Know?

Different countries have different laws. Which ones should we follow? Also, sometimes the laws aren't fair and must be changed. Confusing isn't it?!

Color That Stuff

Here's a great quote from Mahatma Gandhi who helped change unfair laws in India.

Jesus' followers did their best to look to God's laws to guide their lives. There were a lot of laws to follow – more than six hundred! All of God's laws were gifts to the people to help them love God and live together in peace.

One day, a lawyer came to Jesus with a question. "Teacher," he asked, "what is the most important of God's laws?"

Jesus smiled. "Love God with all your heart and mind and strength. And love other people as much as you love yourself."

The lawyer nodded, but then asked, "What about all the other laws? Aren't they important?"

"Yes. But if you follow these two laws, you will be following all the rest, too. You will be able to love God and live together in peace."

"Wow!" the lawyer said. "Thanks for making things simple, Jesus!"

Laws

Rules to live your life by. They help us live peacefully together.

Special Task Force

With a helper, write out three laws you and your household would like to focus on doing better. Write them on sticky notes and paste them somewhere everyone can read them.

TICTACTOE

Sometimes, the simplest laws like loving your neighbor are written directly in your heart. It just takes reminders that this is what's important.
