Devotions

Devotion provided by Paul S.

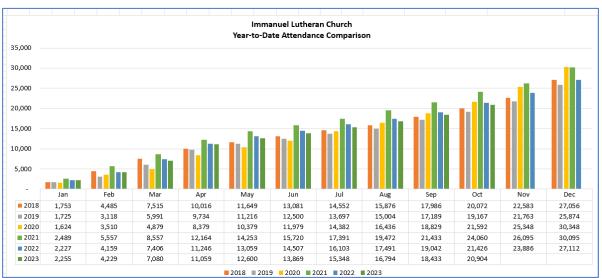

Financial Matters

Connie presented the financial, attendance and giving information.

Attendance

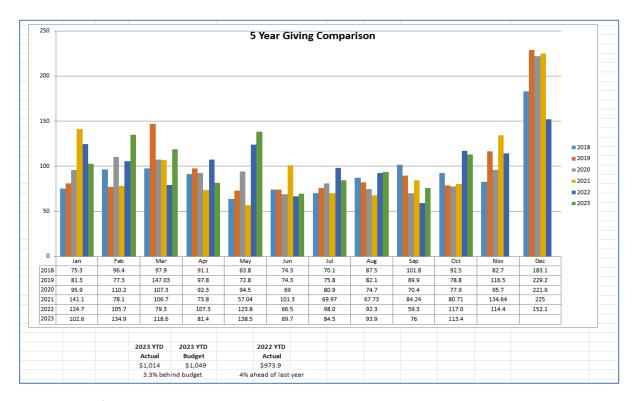

- Noticing pattern over last 2 years
- October 5 week months 2022 and 2023 comparable
- Assuming Nov and Dec will continue to follow pattern
- 60-70% in person attendance seems to be consistent
- Pastor Paul hearing from people that really appreciate the online worship availability
- Phil shared story of new member selecting Immanuel based on online service quality

Giving

- Very consistent with last October
- Projecting November and December will follow similar pattern planning conservatively

Raise the Roof

- 63% of pledges received, 53% of campaign completed
- Roofing underway rubber membrane roof much easier to repair

- October received $9600 more than spent in month
- $11,537 ahead should have greater favorability at end of year, planned for deficit so very grateful for faithful giving by congregation
- Expecting program expenses to be higher in November

2024 Budget

- May change assumptions once pledges come in
- Changed accounting rules for Youth accounts no longer dedicated accounts
- 2024 currently projecting $37K shortfall (preliminary)
 - Have made some cuts after last month's Council meeting and moved Camp Wapo to benevolence –
 $12K in first round reductions
 - o We have budgeted deficit in the past but have never ended the year that way
 - Did not have deficit in 2023 because we were not fully staffed
 - Pastor Paul grateful because we are in an incredible position able to pay staff at Synod guidelines and provide significant benevolence – faithful generosity of our congregation; have a wonderful staff which is recognized by congregation
 - Will provide total benevolence at Annual meeting (Jan. 21, 2024) special collections done throughout the year, PROP bingo event, craft sale – (not part of the general budget)
 - Immanuel has a large gift policy not well known
 - Discussed endowment fund Kelly and Connie reviewed last year and moved investment to a better fund
 - Pastor Dan provided insights from other churches at which he has served

Staff update – Kelly

• Currently focused on 2024 budget and audit committee (non-financial portions starting now)

Ministry Team Updates/Pastoral Acts:

- Deacon Savannah

 - Nominees presented in Feb. at Synod Assembly
 - 6-7 people going to Amextra in March
- Pastor Dan
 - Adult Faith Formation and Fellowship Committee meeting establishing structure
 - No big new programs planned but would like to try some new things carefully picking focus (conversation groups, Timberwolves game (fellowship))
 - Met with all leaders of Faith formation groups grateful for all the things that are happening and congregation-led activities
- Pastor Paul
 - 2 baptisms, 2 funerals, 0 weddings
 - o Great Confirmation retreat enthusiastic, great kids
 - Planning staff retreat volunteers, Stepping Stones, Fall theme for 2024
 - Italy trip people in that group were amazing, enjoyed each other's company, enriching, rewarding talk about presentation in 2024
 - St. Andrew's pastor took call in FL, leaving mid-December keep that congregation in your prayers as they go through this transition

Council Committee updates

Phil/Kate – Sr High

• 54 attendees at confirmation retreat

- Tomorrow night mental health awareness presentations one for youth, one for parents/guardians
- Considering moving confirmation retreat to Camp Eden Wood to reduce travel and expenses might make it easier to participate for even part of the retreat
- Sent 20 care packages to last year's graduates
- Youth gathering 9 students from Immanuel, 17 from Mt. Olivet in Plymouth helps with flight costs; will do some activities with other group to make connections
 - Expect some fundraising opportunities
- Thanksgiving Eve kids will be serving pie after service (Grace organizing)

Winnie - WMA

- Focusing on budgeting and different accounts available
- Music room organization progressing well planning to color code music by season and create online library

- Brass trying to find time to rehearse Winnie to talk with the group
- Working on Welcome Sunday cross display
- Question about hymnal supplement church has not purchased the 2020 version

Angie - Fellowship

- Still getting a handle on Fellowship meeting with Wednesday night café leaders to see how things are going
 - About breaking even or some surplus in café account
- Look to Annual meeting planning
- Smorgasbord Bev Lohs heading up, Fellowship supporting/answering questions
- Worked on budget with Pastor Dan
- Sent email to coffee servers using real coffee cups, here to help, everyone really receptive and it helps cut costs on paper products

Nancy - Adult Faith Formation

- Met with leaders of groups people really opened up about the needs (what to read, where to find materials)
- Excited about direction
- SALT group planned their event for same day as Smorgasbord looking for some entertainment
 - Planning for next year

Emily – Children's ministry

- Parent's night out fundraiser for youth accounts Dec. 9, 15 or 16
- Child-led advent worship service planning underway Dec. 17 practice on Dec 3 and 10
- At home advent supplies available for families to pick up
- Volunteers still reaching out weekly
- Trunk or Treat really cold, moved inside, some families may not have come because of the cold, many had never been in the church before

Mark – Properties

- Hired out lightbulb replacement in Luther Hall (complete)
- Fall clean up completed, about 10 people showed up thanks to Ryan Brattensburg for his help
