Jesus Prays for His Friends

Jesus was praying out loud with his disciples.

"God, thank you for all my wonderful friends. I'm going to miss them when I leave."

Mary was sad to think that Jesus would be leaving them again. But she kept listening.

"I have done everything I need to do here, and now it's my friends' turn."

What did he mean by that? Mary wondered.

"I have given them your wonderful word, and they have everything they need to go out and share your love with the world."

Ah, Mary thought. That makes sense.

"It's going to be very hard for them. Please take care of them. I love them all so much."

Mary wiped a tear away from her eye. It was so beautiful to hear Jesus pray for all of them.
