

FaithBIT

Seek and You Will Find

Reflection by Jerry Martin

Recently I was having a conversation with a friend. For one reason or another, we quickly felt the familiar entanglement of trying to control everything that was going on around us. Thankfully, we turned our discussion to our trust in Jesus.

For me, to find God's peace is to fully trust Jesus. I know that not all things will go according to my plan, and that is ok. Because if I trust in Jesus and ask that he be with me every step of the way, then I can be comforted that I am exactly where He wants me to be.

“...the more I seek,
the more I find.”
- Jerry Martin

With this conversation, came another worry. My friend shared she is concerned because her eldest son is questioning his faith. My response... Good! That is great that he is trying to find answers and wants to know more. Encourage him to find those answers. Dig, read, search, discuss, share and seek!

From my own experience, the more I seek, the more I find. But let's not take my word for it, we have much better authority than my testimony. Jesus said it is so!

“Ask and it will be given to you: seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.” (Matthew 7:7-8)